ANSWERED ON:17.05.2002
CHANGES IN PRODUCTION PATTERN OF NTC
DALPAT SINGH PARASTE

Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a): the fresh steps have been taken by the National Textile Corporation to cut down its losses and increase its profits;

(b): whether the NTC guidelines aim at gradual change in the pattern of production by going into the production of fine cloth;

(c) : if so, the details thereof; and

(d): the number of weak mills of NTC closed down alongwith their names?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI V. DHANANJAYA KUMAR)

(a): Closing down chronic loss-making unviable mills, restricting loss-sustaining operations, modernisation of the viable mills, cutting down administrative costs and introduction of new product line are the steps taken by NTC to reduce losses.

(b)&(c): As a part of rehabilitation plan approved for 6 out of the 8 subsidiaries of NTC, product mix has been determined on the basis of present & expected market conditions and the status of the machinery with each mill.

(d): 11 unviable non-functioning mills were closed down after giving VRS to all the employees. The list of such mills is enclosed.
